

LE NORD

BISTROT | LUNCH | BIER & WIJNBAR

Opening hours:
Monday & Tuesday from 4 p.m
Wednesday to Sunday from 12 noon

Local organic products

The majority of our vegetables, fruit, meat, dairy products and bread come from an organic farm Hoeve Biesland. This stubborn farmer works together with nature, by improving the soil quality, which revives biodiversity.

A farmer who works with a 'closed cycle' and in a sustainable way. And only 15 km from Le Nord, so still local too.

We also work with sustainably caught fish from Schmidt Zeevis in Rotterdam.

Our kitchen

Our chef Sjoerd likes to work with the finest ingredients; local, healthy and with respect for nature. With a healthy nod to classic French cuisine, he prepares surprising meat, fish, vegetarian and vegan dishes.

Our team

The great brigade of Le Nord serves you a cozy and tasteful lunch, drink and dinner. Due to the wide choice of beers and wines, personal advice is always given. From trusted and local beers to non-alcoholic spirits to natural wines from forgotten wine countries.

Something for everyone's taste.

*Note: unfortunately it is not possible to pay group bills in different parts.
Thank you for your understanding.*

Wilderland Tea

To improve Dutch biodiversity, we will have to reconnect with nature. That is why we work together with farmers on a Wilder Land by sowing herbs that we make incredibly tasty tea. The more weeds and herbs we sow at farms, the more bees, birds and butterflies will return to the Netherlands. Enjoy our unique blends that make you "wilder" with a Dutch cup of herbal tea that restores Dutch nature.

Glera

The grapes for this wine come from the Colvendramé vineyard, located on the hills of Refrontolo between Conegliano and Valdobbiadene. This is the heart of the DOCG area for Prosecco. The term "Rive" in the wine refers to the steep slopes of a hill, which are considered the best places to grow the Glera grapes. Full aromas of white flowers, lily of the valley and green apple. A dry wine, pleasant on the palate. This is the real Prosecco.
